Pr. Ron du Preez

Main Speaker

Pr. Ron du Preez was born in South Africa and has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church on six continents in various roles, including teacher, university professor, college president, ordained minister, departmental director, and television program host. He is passionate about Scripture and holds multiple advanced degrees, including an MA in Religion, an MA in Education, a Master of Divinity, a Doctor of Ministry in Missions, a Doctor of Theology in Theological Ethics, and a PhD in Religious Studies. He has authored or edited 16 books and frequently speaks at camp meetings, youth conferences, weeks of prayer, Bible symposia, and ministerial conventions. For eight years, he has been an Adjunct Professor at the Adventist University of Africa. A promoter of a healthy lifestyle with the motto "Fitness for Witness," he has completed many races as a runner, triathlete and race-walker. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Lynda, originally from Texas, and sharing the joy of his journey with Jesus.

Ev. Maurice Mudaala

Children's Speaker

Ev. Maurice Mudaala comes to us from Lusaka, Zambia where he has served in the Children's Ministries, Family Life, Evangelism and Pathfinder departments. He has preached and conducted lessons at VBS, church camp meetings, Pathfinder camps, Public Campus Ministries, AMO crusades and Youth weeks of prayer. He is blessed with a spouse and two children, where he has come to learn and appreciate God's thoughtfulness and love in creating family.

Punchline: Psalms 77:13 - Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary; who is so great a God as our God.

Bro. Loago Setswalo

Prophecy & Family Life (Married 0-10 years)

Bro. Loago Setswalo was born in Botswana and is currently based in Machadodorp, South Africa. He has taught Bible classes in colleges across South America, Europe, the South Pacific, and Southern Africa. For over ten years, he has delivered presentations on parenting, marriage and family life, education, and Bible prophecy, aiming to make the Bible more understandable and practical. He is dedicated to preparing people for the coming of the Lord.

He is blessed with a spouse and two children, through whom he has come to appreciate the blessings of a Godly family and the importance of following God's principles in running an Adventist home. He values the treasure of truth in living and practicing these principles.

Punchline: The Sanctuary truth, which led to the existence of Seventh-day Adventists by unlocking the mystery of the 1844 disappointment, continues to clarify the plan of salvation. It is the hub of Adventist doctrines; denying it results in an incomplete understanding of salvation.

Pr. Douglas Ochanda

Morning Devotion & Family Life (Young Adults)

Pr. Douglas Ochanda is an ordained minister who currently serves as the SDA Jericho District pastor. He has actively served the youthful congregations (Gen-Z) as a chaplain for many years, including Machakos University District institutions for the last 5 years. He is an MA-Religion graduate from AIIAS, Philippines. Along with his passion for chaplaincy ministry and mental health awareness, he is devoted to creating devotional content and podcasts for media ministry, such as his Sacred Desk Edifier platform. Pr. Guest Speakers

Pr. Super Moesi Mosimanegape

Pastor Moesi is originally from Tonota, Botswana but left his profession to answer God's call to ministry. He started as a student literature evangelist and then became a full-time minister. He served as a local church pastor in Botswana, then as Youth, Communication, and Spirit of Prophecy (SOP) Director for the North Botswana Conference. He further advanced to Publishing, Communication, and SOP Director for the Botswana Union Conference, and then to Publishing and SOP Director for the Southern Africa Indian Ocean Division (SID) in Pretoria, South Africa, for fifteen years.

Pr. Moesi holds a diploma in Christian salesmanship from Zambezi Union Literature Ministry Seminary, a BA in Theology from Solusi University, a Master of Arts in Leadership, and a Doctor of Ministry (Missions Emphasis) from Adventist University of Africa. He currently serves as the Director of the Ellen G. White Estate Branch Office for Africa, based at the Adventist University of Africa in Kenya.

He is married to Boipelo (Joy) and blessed with two daughters, Lefika (Mighty Rock) and Lefilwe (Given/ blessed). His vision is to see every person make Jesus the pride of their life, and his mission is to live and lead others into the presence of Jesus (1 Thess. 2:19). Punchline: Just as the Israelite families brought their offerings to God in the sanctuary, recognizing His ownership, we are encouraged as families to acknowledge that everything we have, including our families, comes from Him. The sanctuary teaches us that worship and experiencing God's presence begin with willful and cheerful giving, as demonstrated by the freewill offerings used to build the sanctuary.

He graduated from Loma Linda University School of Medicine and completed a residency in internal medicine, a fellowship in global health, and board certification in lifestyle medicine. Message from the Pastorate & Eldership

Pr. Peter Nyagah
Senior Pastor

Pr. Stephen Tirop
Pastor

Pr. Meshack Amayo
Pastor

Eld. George Anyango
Head Elder

Greetings Beloved!

As in the days of old, the LORD has granted us yet another marvellous opportunity to gather in his sanctuary to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles (Deuteronomy 16:13-17).

In a world filled with turmoil and sin, the LORD calls us to solidify our faith in Him and His Word, encourage each other through fellowship, and refocus our minds on the mission of saving souls.

Ellen White counsels that Camp meeting is a time to "promote spiritual life among our people" (6T 32). At these holy convocations, people are encouraged to "find in Christ deliverance from the power of sin" and "seek purity of heart" (PH130).

This year, the theme for the Camp Meeting is "Salvation Simplified – An Examination of the Sanctuary Message", based on Psalm 77:13.

As we assemble before the LORD in praise and thanksgiving, we, the Pastorate and Eldership of Nairobi Central SDA Church, extend a hearty invitation to all our regular members and special friends to join us in this holy convocation. Let us draw nigh that we may "receive light and blessing, so we may have something to impart." (PH 33.2)

Message from the Camp Chair

Eld. Daniel Matoke
Camp Meeting Chairman

All praise, honour and glory to our Almighty Father in Heaven for His care and provision since our last camp meeting. Over the past year, we have encountered numerous successes and challenges both as individuals and as a church, and for all this, we are deeply grateful and give God all the glory. This moment calls for us to reflect on God's goodness, to celebrate His blessings, and to contemplate our spiritual growth as we strive towards our higher calling in Christ Jesus.

Our theme serves as a powerful reminder of the greatness of our God, the sole provider of our salvation since the foundation of the earth. As we journey through this temporary world, we hold fast to Christ's promise that He has gone to prepare a place for us and will return to take us to be with Him, so that where He is, we may be also.

By God's grace and guidance, the camp meeting committee (God bless them!) has organized a comprehensive program on behalf of the Church. This includes full-day thematic sessions available both in-person and virtually, as well as family life sessions that will be held in-person only. Full-day in-person sessions for children have also been arranged. Guided by the Holy Spirit, we have invited guests to facilitate all the sessions. We kindly ask for your prayers for these guests as they serve God. May the Holy Spirit fill us all, leading to a great revival for God's glory!

On behalf of the Camp Meeting Committee, we extend our heartfelt appreciation for your support in making this camp meeting 2024 a success through your prayers and financial sacrifices. May God continue to work in us, both to will and to act according to His good pleasure, now and forevermore. Amen!

1. The Judgment Has Set - Hymn #416

Stanza 1

The judgment has set,
the books have been opened;
How shall we stand in that great day,
When every thought, and word, and action,
God, the righteous Judge, shall weigh?

Stanza 3

O, how shall we stand
that moment of searching,
When all our sins those books reveal?
When from that court, each case decided,
Shall be granted no appeal?

Stanza 2

The work is begun with those who are sleeping,
Soon will the living here be tried,
Out of the books of God's remembrance,
His decision to abide.

Refrain

How shall we stand in that great day?
How shall we stand in that great day?
Shall we be found before Him wanting?
Or with our sins all washed away?

2. Saved

Stanza 1

The lamb of God by His own blood
Entered the most holy place once for all.
Paid the full price set captives free
Granted the redeemed of God a new life.

Refrain

Thou O precious Lamb of God,
Thou once for all sinners slain
Granting us Your righteousness,
Saved by grace
Washed in the blood of the dear Lamb,
Glory to God on high.
Saved by grace.

Stanza 2

The Lamb of God by His own blood.
Entered the most holy place, once for all.
Paid the full price, set captives free.
Granted the redeemed of God a new life.
