Quarter Four Theme

Focused on the Mission (Matthew 28:19-20)

The church is called to live intentionally with a mission-centered mindset. We are reminded of Matthew 28:19–20: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you." Being rooted in Christ and obedience in daily life naturally leads to a clear focus on sharing His love and truth. A life transformed by Christ is a life sent on mission—purposeful, directed, and fully surrendered to advancing His kingdom on earth

"Every true disciple of Christ is born into His kingdom for the purpose of advancing the interests of that kingdom."— Ellen G. White, Christ's Object Lessons, p. 326

Mission is not optional; it is the natural fruit of a life faithfully rooted in Christ and obedient to His will.

Focus of the Month

Faithful Witness until the End / Revelation 14:12

Here is an invite to a posture of steadfast resilience, fixing our hope on Christ's imminent return. Our testimony is found in a life of patient endurance and obedient faith, heeding the scriptural call: "Here is the patience of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus" (Revelation 14:12). This enduring witness is the hallmark of God's final people.

Such perseverance under trial reveals a character refined by grace, for as Ellen White assures: "Through trial and persecution the glory—the character—of God is revealed in His chosen ones." —The Acts of the Apostles, p. 576.
